3. Chairman's annual report.

This was read to the meeting and a copy is attached to these minutes and indexed appropriately.

4. Questions from the floor.

Andy Dingwall asked where and how comprehensively the Chedzoy Climate Change Project had been advertised. He was advised that the launch day was reported in the Bridgwater Mercury and the Polden Post more recently carried a comprehensive article, including a full cover photograph.

Diogo Rodrigues said that the number of trees planted under the project (in excess of 2000 to date) dwarfed the total planted by Bridgwater Town Council (approximately 400).

There being no other business the meeting was declared closed at 7.48 pm.
